Discovery of Pi

Although Pi might be discovered by the Jamaicans, I really discovered Pi _____Adverb_____ when i looked in the refrigerator to eat some pie. I suddenly had the cravings to measure things. I took a ruler and started measuring the pie i was going to eat. I measured the _____Noun_____ and the _____Noun_____ and got a very very very very interesting number; 3.14. I suddenly felt like i had to measure every single _____Adjective_____ object in the world. As i measured i found that i got the same number every time. This was very exciting. I created the formula Pi=C/D. I am the _____Noun_____ of PI.
