Bridal Shower Mad Lib

The story of Charlie and Franchesca is a Adjective one. It goes back over a decade! Back then, Franchesca was a Noun in high school and Charlie a Noun. They used to go Verb - Present Tense together with their mutual friend, First Name of a Person. They also Verb - Past Tense in Teen Court together. They used to argue about Noun, because Charlie had the hots for her even then! Charlie and his friend, Stephen, Verb - Past Tense her out of her Noun in high school, Verb - Present Tense the principal.

Then they spent a long time not talking much at all, Adverb. Charlie went off to Proper Noun college, Franchesca went on to the Noun program, and they each dated other people. During Franchesca's time in nursing school, Charlie found her again on Location (of all places), and they began to Verb again. They continued to argue again about Noun (because Charlie had the hots for her even then), and finally Franchesca herself became a Christian.

Even then, though, nothing happened between them. Charlie was still Verb - Present Tense the wrong Noun, and neither of them were yet Adjective enough to realize their Adjective match right in front of them. However, they Verb - Past Tense their friendship and spent a great deal of time Adverb. They talked, they studied the Noun together, they played Magic, they even expanded their horizons and argued Noun with other people and not just with each other!

Charlie became "single" again, and not more than 5 months later, Franchesca and Charlie were finally dating!

However, due to _____ Adjective timing and external _____ Noun - Plural, it was not to last. After their _____ Adjective dating period, they spent a year and a half _____ Adverb, sometimes being friends, sometimes not _____ Verb - Present Tense at all. Both were fairly sure that they were _____ Verb - Past Participle for each other, but still they were apart. Franchesca sought others, but none had Charlie's _____ attribute. Charlie sought others, but none made him _____ Verb like she did.

Finally, Charlie realized that he was _____ Adjective the perfect person for him. Everyone in their _____ Location knew that they were to be together except him. And so he called and _____ Verb - Past Tense her for another _____ Noun. She happily gave him one. One and a half months later, they were engaged!

They still occasionally argue _____ Noun (Charlie still has the hots for her!) But, as CS Lewis said, they want to marry because they figured if they were going to argue, they might as well marry in order to do it more conveniently.
