Bridal Shower Mad Lib

The story of Charlie and Franchesca is a one. It goes back over a decade! Back then, Franchesca was a in high school and Charlie a They used to go verb Present Tense together with their mutual friend, First Name of a Person They also Verb - Past Tense in Teen Court together. They used to argue about, because Charlie had the hots for her even then!
Charlie and his friend, Stephen, her out of her in high school, the principal.
Then they spent a long time not talking much at all, Charlie went off to college, Franchesca went on to the program, and they each dated other people. During Franchesca's time in nursing school, Charlie found her again on (of all places), and they began to again. They continued to argue again about (because Charlie had the hots for her even then), and finally Franchesca herself became a Christian.
Even then, though, nothing happened between them. Charlie was still the wrong
, and neither of them were yet enough to realize their Adjective match right in front of them. However, they their friendship and spent a great deal of time They talked, they studied the together, they played Magic, they even expanded their horizons and argued with other people and not just with each other!

Charlie became "single" again, and not more than 5 months later, Franchesca and Charlie were finally dating!
However, due totiming and external, it was not to last. After their dating period, they spent a year and a half, sometimes being friends, sometimes not verb - Present Tense at all. Both were fairly sure that they were verb - Past Participle for each other, but still they were apart. Franchesca sought others, but none had Charlie's Charlie sought others, but none made him like she did.
Finally, Charlie realized that he was the perfect person for him. Everyone in their Location knew that they were to be together except him. And so he called and Verb - Past Tense her for another Noun. She happily gave him one. One and a half months later, they were engaged!
They still occasionally argue (Charlie still has the hots for her!) But, as CS Lewis said, they want to marry because they figured if they were going to argue, they might as well marry in order to do it more conveniently.
