The Climate and Water Currents World Exploration Ch. 2

1.	Name 1
2.	Name 2
3.	Munching Or Crunching
4.	Hunting Or Stalking
5.	Name 1
6.	Name 2
	Vehicle Type
8.	Sped Or Zoomed
9.	Same Vehicle Type
10.	Name 1
	Name 2
12.	Same Vehicle Type
13.	Same Vehicle Type
14.	A Word To Describe Hot
15.	Tumbling Or Plumiting
16.	Name 1
17.	Name 1
18.	Past Tense Synonym For Walked
19.	Decreased Or Diminished
20.	Synonym For Walk
21.	Food Item
22.	Food Item

23. Name 124. Name 225. Vehicle Type

The Climate and Water Currents World Exploration Ch. 2

Chapter 2 Summary: Zebra, Gorillas, Elephants and deserts name 1 and name 2 headed north through the Semiarid and Tropical wet and dry climates of the savanna where they saw crocodiles ______ on wildebeest and lions _____ hunting or stalking vehicle type ____. They ____ sped or zoomed ____ away from the dangerous lions. The zebra brayed a, "Thanks for the rescue!" Then leapt off the ______same vehicle type ____. name 1 and name 2 decided they'd like to see gorilla's in their natural habitat so they hopped in their _____ and headed north to the tropical wet rainforest in central Africa. Once there, they sold their _____ and made their way through the jungle on foot. Thunder roared. Lightning flashed. But neither Frank nor Alice shivered, it was _____a word to describe hot ____ hot. No wonder it rained so much here! The hot sun evaporated water from the Atlantic Ocean, filling the area with moisture. When the clouds became too full (which was often) the rain would come ______ down out of the sky. It was bizarre to think that gorillas needed such a thick covering of fur in such a humid environment, but perhaps it helps camouflage them in the dark jungle.

munching on leaves and Alice watched them for a while, but when it started to rain again, they decided it was time to go. They past tense synonym for walked out of the jungle.
As they headed north the number of trees Instead of the lush green forest, they were now traveling through a grassy savanna. This was a semiarid region so the air was hot and dry. They saw a family of elephantssynonym for walk by, but they saw no giraffes, no zebras. When they stopped in town to have a lunch of and food item they overheard a fellow customer talking about how there used to be lions in the area, but now their numbers had dwindled to almost nil.
and would soon be crossing the Sahara desert, and had no desire to do so on foot so they rented a The drive across the desert was unpleasant. They eventually made it to Africa's western coast, where they hopped on a boat.

©2025 WordBlanks.com \cdot All Rights Reserved.