More stories at WordBlanks.com

Tribble

1. Verb - Present Tense _____
2. Noun _____
3. Noun - Plural _____
4. Noun _____
5. Verb - Past Tense _____
6. Noun _____
7. Verb - Present Tense _____
8. Verb - Present Tense _____
9. Noun - Plural _____
10. Noun - Plural _____
11. Noun _____
12. Noun - Plural _____
13. Verb _____
14. Verb - Past Tense _____
15. Noun _____
16. Noun - Plural _____
17. Verb - Past Participle _____

Tribble

One day we were _____Verb - Present Tense_____ through space when we came upon a strange vessel. We hailed the vessel but received no _____Noun_____. Our helmsman scanned the ship and discovered there were millions of _____Noun - Plural_____ on board despite no apparent crew. None of our hails were returned and the ship did not acknowledge our _____Noun_____. Intrigued and hoping to help the passengers of the strange starliner we _____Verb - Past Tense_____ aboard. When we arrived on the ship we found ourselves up to our necks in tribbles. There were countless tribbles all over the _____Noun_____. There were tribbles _____Verb - Present Tense_____ on the console, and tribbles _____Verb - Present Tense_____ on the walls. There were _____Noun - Plural_____ in the air vents and _____Noun - Plural_____ in the command chair. The tribbles were running the _____Noun_____! The tribbles were moving the controls and steering the vessel. Until now tribbles were merely considered _____Noun - Plural_____ by the federation and were classified as non-sentient. We believed them completely without thought and only designed to _____Verb_____. These tribbles however were steering their ship towards a planet with a lush jungle. We helped the tribbles land and with no natural predators on the world the tribbles quickly _____Verb - Past Tense_____ their species. The Tribble _____Noun_____ the Klingons had seemingly wrought was soon reversed. In recognition of the tribbles as a sentient species the tribbles of Deep Space Station K7 were all awarded _____Noun - Plural_____ of honor for their service in defense of Sherman's planet against the Klingon plot. Tribbletopia became a protected planet under Federation law and the Klingons never again _____Verb - Past Participle_____ the tribble's coos.

©2026 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.