A Dad and Son go to college

Once upon a time there was a very Adjective teenage and a Adjective father that went to Noun together. They both Verb - Past Tense to Verb new things. The dad was a bit more Adjective Noun than his son. And the son was a bit too Verb - Past Participle Adverb for his fathers liking. In spite of these differences they formed a Noun and closeness that few dads and sons have. Relying on each other during the Number Noun - Plural it took them to get their Noun was a great Noun experience for them both. Whether it was Verb - Present Tense through discrete math or Noun for hipster logic, they kept Noun and Noun alive. Now that they have reached their goal and have graduated with degrees in Noun Proper Noun their lives will soon diverge. Its a fact though, that the mutual Noun, love and Noun they have for each other is deper because of taking this journey together.
