That's Just Plain ...

Today in _____ Noun we got to start tonight's homework. So everyone asked "What's tonight's homework?"

The teacher said we had to write _____ Number jokes in honor of the holidays. So I wrote 3 _____ Noun - Plural _____ that I know and decided that I should do the rest at home. To test and see if my jokes were funny I told them to my family members. The first joke I said to my _____ Family Member, after I told him the joke he said,"

That's just plain normal!" The second joke I told my sister. Afterwards she _____ Verb - Past Tense, "That's just plain gross!" Finally I told the last joke to my mom, "That's just plain silly!" as she rolled on the floor laughing.

So that's what brought a smile to my _____ Part of Body. Thanks mom.
