Sydney's exchange student

Sydney walked into the and looked for her Piper called out her name and waved her over. She into a seat next to Molly. "Hey, you are never going to believe the news I have!" she exclaimed. "Well, tell us!" they all at the same time. "We have an Noun student coming to the school tomorrow. She will be here for Number months!" she said waving her arms in the air "her name is and she is from"
They all talked excitedly about having a new friend and wondered what she would be like. They decided that since she was from she must be super and fashionable. Molly assured them that all people are.
The next Monday morning the girls were Sydney was supposed to be meeting out front of the school and showing her around this morning. Sydney opened the door and pointed down the hall and Bridgitte in the door.
She had on a yellowitem of clothing with with bright orange Noun all over it. Her skirt clashed with her polka dotted boots. They walked up to the girls and Sydney smiled "Hi Noun - Plural, this is Bridgitte." She smiled and waved at each of them and said " Bonjour." As they were walking down the hall behind Bridgitte and Sydney, Molly leaned over to Piper and sai "well, so much for the fashionista huh? Where does someone even find a like that?" Piper shushed her and Molly threw up her hand "oh, she doesn't speak English, she doesn't know what I am saying.
The girls continued discussing outfit and Piper said "How about that item of clothing ?

guessing she has to be color blind." "I know, and the? Oh my, I don't even think they sell those in the United States." Sydney heard her friends and felt bad for She did kind of stick ou like a sore She was thankful that she couldn't understand what the girls were saying.
Lunchtime rolled around and the girls motioned for Bridgitte to with them. She verb - Past over to the table with her tray in hand and Piper pointed to the seat and was trying to figure out how to say "sit with us" in language. girls name smiled and in perfect English said "No thanks. I'll verb over there with my friends. They actually like my item of clothing that my family knit for me for good luck here in the states and thought the story of how my luggage was mixed up with someone else's was funny. This is all I had to today, but they didn't seem to mind." She turned and away and sat with her new Noun - Plural The girls sat there with their mouths wide open feeling "Well, I guess she speaks a little English after all" said Molly.
