More stories at WordBlanks.com

Royals Mad Libs

1. Adjective _____
2. Proper Noun _____
3. Proper Noun _____
4. Noun _____
5. Verb - Base Form _____
6. Adjective _____
7. Adjective _____
8. Proper Noun _____
9. Noun _____
10. Adjective _____
11. Proper Noun _____
12. Proper Noun _____
13. Noun _____
14. Adjective _____
15. Adjective _____
16. Noun _____
17. Adjective _____
18. Verb - Past Tense _____
19. Proper Noun _____

Royals Mad Libs

It was a _____Adjective_____ summer day in _____Proper Noun_____ and people were coming from miles away to watch the Royals play on an August Saturday night. A sold-out crowd was there that day to witness the championship game and even _____Proper Noun_____ was in town to watch the game. You could smell the _____Noun_____, hear the _____Verb - Base Form_____ and watch the players warm-up before the big game. The anthem singer was _____Adjective_____ and really made the crowd _____Adjective_____ in anticipation the first pitch. As the game got underway, _____Proper Noun_____ caught a foulball in his _____Noun_____ and the entire crowd went _____Adjective_____! He was as surprised as anyone. Eventually the Royals scored some runs but the Baycats came back to tie the game. It was now the bottom of the ninth inning and _____Proper Noun_____ was at-bat. The first pitch came in and almost hit _____Proper Noun_____ in the _____Noun_____. It really seemed like the pitcher was trying to start a fight. The next pitch was going to be down and away so the batter positioned for the pitch. The ball was _____Adjective_____, and _____Adjective_____ while the crowd was standing on it's _____Noun_____. The sound of the bat hitting the ball was as loud as _____Adjective_____ and the ball _____Verb - Past Tense_____ into the night sky. _____Proper Noun_____ had won the game for Guelph and went down in history as the greatest baseball player from Guelph of all-time!

©2026 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.