Weird and Weirder

1.	Noun
2.	Noun - Plural
3.	Noun
4.	Noun - Plural
5.	Verb
6.	Adjective
7.	Noun - Plural
8.	Adjective
9.	Noun - Plural
10.	Noun
	Noun
12.	Adjective
	Adverb
14.	Adjective
	Noun
	Adjective
	Verb - Past Participle
	Noun - Plural
	Noun
	Noun
	Verb - Present Tense
	Noun
	Verb - Past Participle
٠٠.	vero - i ast i articipio

24.	Verb - Past Participle
25.	Verb
26.	Noun
27.	Noun - Plural
28.	Adjective
29.	Noun - Plural
30.	Adjective
31.	Verb - Past Participle
32.	Noun
33.	Adjective
34.	Noun - Plural

Weird and Weirder

Once upon a Noun there were two Noun - Plural named David and Erin. T	They met on a Noun to Costa Rica where they became insta friends. Going on Noun - Plural	and adventures of all kinds. David had moved to Ottawa so their friendship could continue to	. However he was always saying he was to doing laundry to play (silly boy). They went or	n to join a couple of Noun - Plural teams together ( Adjective and ball hockey), invent a few	Noun - Plural, took some trips (Thunder Bay and Toronto) and had many and _	Adjective times together. David quickly became one of Erin's best friends. An Adjective	person that can always be counted on for and everything. They have helped each other thr	ough thick and thin.
Some of Erin's best memories of the last year are the Sunday dinners the	at the two have Verb - Past Participle together with their Noun - Plural, watching movies hung-o	over from the Noun before and making wonderful Noun and baked goods (not so much	ch the of new foods though). One time they went on their friendversary	in Gatineau and went off theverb - Past Participle track. Legend has it that on this trip they were	Verb - Past Participle by a bear and had to in a home made for noun - Plural	. so the story goes.
There have been many concerts, dancing nights, hikes, walks, bike	Noun - Plural and talks that have just beenAdjective Erin is veryverb - Past Participle to see where the world is a second control of the past Participle to see where the past Participle to see where	nat the Noun holds. It will be nothing but things for two amazing Noun - Plural	_•

©2025 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.