disneyland

Once, very long ago, I went to disney land with my and i had a very good time. When I entered the gates, I was verb - Past Participle to see so many different types of Noun - Plural There were a lot of around too and most of the lines were also very long. It took us half an hour just to get to the front of the line! regardless it was a lot of fun.
After that me and my went to eat some pizza. We stopped by at a new italian place and boy was I in for another The taste of the pizza was absoultely I dare say, it was even better then pizza hut!
Ever since that first time many many years ago, me and my have made it a tradition to go to disney land every other and afterwards we go to the same pizza place. A lot has changed since the first time and it brings back a whole lot of back to me. And every experience keeps adding on to the long list of memories. Very often we like to discuss the old times and the previous expereinces we had and about grandpa who used to be with us and who absolutely loved his rides!
