

Noun Practice #1

1. Noun _____
2. Proper Noun - City Name _____
3. Noun - Place _____
4. Noun _____
5. Proper Noun - Name _____
6. Noun - Plural _____
7. Proper Noun - Country _____
8. Adjective _____
9. Noun - Plural _____
10. Verb Ending In -Ed _____
11. Proper Noun - Name _____
12. Adjective _____
13. Verb _____
14. Proper Noun - City Name _____
15. Adjective _____
16. Adjective _____
17. Noun _____
18. Verb Ending In -Ed _____
19. Noun _____
20. Noun _____

Noun Practice #1

Last week, I took a _____ Noun _____ to _____ Proper Noun - city name _____ to visit the _____ noun - place _____ of Fine _____ Noun _____. My son _____ Proper Noun - name _____ and I saw several different kinds of art represented, including _____ Noun - Plural _____ from ancient _____ proper noun - country _____, paintings from the _____ Adjective _____ masters, and _____ Noun - Plural _____ from Italy. While we _____ verb ending in -ed _____ along the galleries, we noticed that there was a statue of a woman called "_____ Proper Noun - name _____. The craftsmanship was amazing - the statue looked so _____ Adjective _____. The plaque below stated that it had been _____ verb _____ in _____ Proper Noun - city name _____ in 1990. That seemed _____ Adjective _____, since it looked so _____ Adjective _____. As we watched, we looked closely at the statue's _____ Noun _____. Then, it blinked! We _____ verb ending in -ed _____. No way! This wasn't a statue at all. It was a piece of living _____ Noun _____. - a person dressed and decorated like a statue who stood still for hours at a time! We left wondering what the city by the _____ Noun _____ would offer us next.