The tale of a trip...

It began with an email. "You are Adverb invited..." it said. Whereupon a large Noun of folks descended upon Miami to embark on a three day Noun to the Proper Noun - Plural. There were Noun - Plural and dancing; Verb - Present Tense and sun. People survived into Saturday without wanting to chuck anyone overboard or reenact that scene in _______ when the boat is tipping upwards and people push each other off of the bow in a frenzy... wait, too grim? Saturday dawned sunny and warm and guests lined up to disembark for a little trip to the private island of ______. On board, the Rozelle Birthday Party Crew began to sing loudly and Adverb and the ship's captain threatened to leave them on the island indefinitely should they continue. Once settled on the _____, the RBPC toasted their host with so many Noun - Plural , the cake nearly caught nearby Noun Noun - Plural ablaze. Saturday night saw more Noun and more music but, thankfully to other cruisers, no more Noun with the exception of Proper Noun who managed to land a spot on American Idol after being overheard by a vacationing producer. Sunday was a day of ______ for some, shark wrestling for others and sleeping in hammocks for the smart ones. The Crew landed Monday morning, bidding each other a Adjective Noun with more birthday Noun - Plural for Harry. In all, a wonderful cruise with new friends made, sun and fun and family enjoyed.
