Senior will

To all of my fellow seniors out there i wish you luck. I know _____Noun_____ of you will succeed in anything you put yourselves to.

It _____Noun_____ feels like yesterday we were all walking through the doors of sonora high school and rushing to get to our first period class. Walking in not knowing what to expect, if the teacher is going to be mean or nice or if other students will like me. Going through the day trying to figure out where my classes are was the toughest time, but in a week i got the hang of it. Going into sophmore year was easier and going to all the dances was super fun!
