Crickets

1. Adjective _____

Crickets

On a [adjective] day, one grasshopper was [verb ending with ing] through the [place] when suddenly he saw a big [creature]. Scared by this [_____Adjective_____] creature he jumped into his [vehicle] and [verb] away. The creature was incredibly [adjective] and so was his [repeat vehicle]. With both sides at equal speed the creature was slowly getting closer to him. Finally the grasshopper used his [noun] and escaped the creature by a hair. As he was [verb ending with ing] away, he knew he was going to defeat this monster, but he needed help So he decided to call on his family. When he arrived home at his [place], he told his family of [plural noun] what had happened. They all were very [adjective] of this creature. The family decided they were going to defeat this monster as well and then [verb] it. They had a family reunion to gather all of their [plural noun] and [plural noun] to defeat this monster. However their was a slight problem. All of the different animals wanted the creature's [noun] as a trophy for their victory. The [repeat plural noun] and [repeat plural noun] started [verb ending with ing] with each other. The grasshopper did not know what to do. If they continued they will never defeat the creature. He tried [verb ending with ing] with them but that did not seem to help. He even tried [verb ending with ing] and that did not even help. He was in big trouble now. Then suddenly he had an idea. He would his [noun] to get the animals attention.
