The Princess and the McDonald's French Fry Guy

Once upon a time there was a Princess named Odalis who was known by everyone throughout the Kingdom of Wonderland. She was an because she loved food so much that she would create a holiday just to eat. She could eat 24 hours a day. She would never the warnings of her mother and father, King George' and Queen Elizabeth who told her that eating too much would make her fat. She the advice from her parents. In fact, she hated their advice so much she would sneak food into her room while no one was awake to see her.
At the Royal Airport, A McDonald's was built inside one of the old since it was not used for airplanes anymore. Their was a French Fry cooker who was cute and sweet and very quiet. He never argued with the customers and everyone thougth he was nice. When the Fry Guy met Princess Odalis she his personality from being plain Fry Guy. He felt that he could do anything in the world. Her words were to his spirit because he believed everything she said about him. But her parents are they did not like anyone who was not rich or famous. They thought he was a cheap, poor, boy and was not good enough for Princess Odalis.
This was an preposition or subordinating conjunction for Princess Odalis. She was so confused. She loved David, the Fry Guy, because he made good food and she loved her parents.
She decided to marry Fry Guy because she was so coordinating conjunction and would do what she wanted to do, her parents let her marry David. Then they liked him and they all lived happily ever after uintil they all got fat and BLEW UP from eating too much fries!
