The Ugly Tree

Long, long ago, in a dense there were thousands of tall and beautiful trees. They were happy, but proud of themselves. Among them there also an ugly tree whose branches were badly twisted. Its Noun - Plural had uneven curves. All the trees made fun of that ugly tree.
"How are you, hunchback?" the other trees always shouted and their laughter made the ugly tree feel sad. But, he never raised a voice against them. The ugly tree thought, "I wish I were as beautiful as the other trees. Why did God do this to me? Neither can I provide shade to the travelers not can the make their nests on me. Nobody needs me."
One day, a woodcutter came to the forest. He took a look at the trees and said, "These trees are I must them." As soon as he picked up his axe the trees became frightened.
'Chop, Chop' went the axe and one by one the trees started to fall. "None of us is going to be spared," screamed one of the beautiful trees. Soon that tree too was brought to ground by the woodcutter's axe.
By now, the woodcutter had come near to the ugly tree. He had just raised his axe when suddenly he noticed how crooked the ugly tree was. "Hmm! This crooked tree seems to be useless for me. I cannot make long straight

logs of this ugly tree," he thought. And	he moved tov	vards another beaut	iful tree. The	ugly tree heaved a huge sigh of Adverb . He realized tha	t by making l	nim ugly, God had a	actually given	him a Noun .
From that day the ugly tree never compa	lained. He wa	as happy with his	Adjective	branches. He never forgot how he was spared from t he	Proper Noun	axe, only becaus	se he was croo	oked and ugly.
