Fairy tale

Once upon a time, there was a young couple living in the forest.

The couple's names were _____First Name of a Person_____ and _____First Name of a Person_____, and the wife recently had a beautiful baby girl that was so tiny she could fit into a _____Noun_____. The infant had long _____Color_____ hair, while her parents had short _____Color_____ hair. Must have been a recessive gene. Anyways, the couple became very poor one year because their _____Food_____ fields had not grown due to drought. The husband needed to _____Verb - Base Form_____ his family, so one _____Adjective_____ night he snuck _____Adverb_____ into the gated garden of the wicked witch named _____First Name of a Person_____ and stole a wheelbarrow full of _____Food_____. What the husband did not know was that the evil witch _____Adverb_____ watched him from a _____Adjective_____ window high up in her cobblestone tower. The husband returned the next morning to his house to find his wife crying _____Noun - Plural_____. The wicked witch had stolen their baby as revenge, and put a curse on her so that her lovely hair would never stop growing. The parents died of sadness because they could never find their child ever again. The witch raised the child as her own in the tower where it could never escape. The only way out of the tower was for the girl to _____Verb - Base Form_____ down her hair from her _____Part of Body_____ through a _____Adjective_____ window until it hit the ground. Then, the witch would slide down her hair like a _____Adjective_____ rope. One day, the witch left to run some errands in the village, in order to buy _____Noun - Plural_____ and _____Noun - Plural_____ for her magic potions that she forced the captive girl to drink so her hair would stay long and strong. While the witch was out, a young man named Prince _____First Name of a Person_____ was riding through the forest on his muscular

_____Animal_____, and came up to the tower where he saw the girl's beautiful hair streaming from her _____Part of Body_____ and out the window. He fell in love with her, deciding to help her escape so he could marry her. He yelled up to the girl to let down her hair, but she did not hear him. He brought out a giant megaphone, but she still did not hear him. He even brought his friends from the village band, Grace and Angela, to play their flutes really loud, but the girl never noticed him.

As he tried to get her attention, the witch noticed all the commotion and cast a spell on him, turning him into an _____Adjective_____ _____Adjective_____ _____Animal_____. What an evil doer! How was he going to get the girl now? The tables were turned when the animal curse went wrong and a giant fart killed the entire planet, because the witch was actually Your Mom and she can never do anything right. Just look at yourself. You turned out to be a giant poop.
