Class 217 had _____ and _____ children like _____, _____, _____ and _____. It also had the school's _____ athletes with _____ and _____ and _____ and _____. Of course there were a few class _____ who brought _____ to everyone's faces... _____, _____ and _____.

Class 217 had a _____ and _____ year. They spent _____ hours raising money to help a nearby school buy _____ books. _____ and _____ baked like crazy people to raise money to buy _____. They studied _____ subjects like _____ and _____. _____ was a _____ scientist and managed not to explode anything. _____ even learned how to do _____. Some of the kids rocked reading and writing, like _____ and _____. Some of the kids _____ odes, like _____.

When

we asked the Principal, Ms. Armitage, to describe Class 217, she said it was the most Verb - Present ends in ING second grade class she had ever seen in all her Number years of Verb - Present ends in ING.

They are Adjective and Adjective and Adjective. They would never fail to Verb - Base Form a classmate. Ms. Michelle in the cafeteria said that Class 217 was really good at Verb - Present ends in ING all their food and food. They loved to drink lots of liquid too. And they were always ready to offer a Noun to the cafeteria workers.

Every kid in Class 217 said that their favorite thing was homework and they really really wished they had more of it to do. Their teacher promised to make sure that next year they get Number hours of homework every night. First Name of a Person and First Name of a Person were especially excited about that. The teacher is so Verb - Past Tense to have all of Class 217 with her again next year in 2nd grade so that they can have even more Adjective.
