Farewell, Mortar

Working at Mortar has been a Adjective Noun. I can't believe how Adverb the time has passed. It seems like just yesterday that Mortaron Name was teaching me how to Verb - Base Form Noun - Plural. I've had more fun and learned more about pioneering advances in chronic body part inflammation than I ever thought possible. Thanks again for the many Adjective times and Adjective memories to remember you by!

Lastly, please take good care of Mortaron Name. (You know how Emotion s/he gets when there are Noun - Plural in his/her burrito.)
