Obama on Benghazi

I strongly condemn the outrageous attack on our diplomatic _____Noun_____ in Benghazi, which took the lives of four Americans, including Ambassador Chris Stevens. Right now, the American _____Noun_____ have the families of those we lost in our thoughts and prayers. They exemplified America's commitment to _____Noun_____ , _____Noun_____, and _____Noun_____ with nations and people around the globe, and stand in stark contrast to those who callously took their lives.

I have directed my _____Noun_____ to provide all necessary resources to support the security of our _____Noun_____ in Libya, and to increase security at our diplomatic posts around the globe. While the United States _____Verb - 3rd Person Singular Present_____ efforts to denigrate the religious beliefs of others, we must all unequivocally oppose the kind of senseless _____Noun_____ that took the lives of these public servants.

On a personal note, Chris was a courageous and exemplary representative of the United States. Throughout the Libyan _____Noun_____, he _____Adverb_____ served our country and the Libyan _____Noun - Plural_____ at our mission in Benghazi. As Ambassador in Tripoli, he has supported Libya's transition to democracy. His legacy will endure _____Adverb_____ human beings reach for liberty and justice. I am _____Adverb_____ grateful for his service to my Administration, and _____Adverb_____ saddened by this loss.

The brave Americans we lost represent the _____Noun_____ service and sacrifices that our civilians make every day _____Determiner_____ the globe. As we stand _____Verb - Past Participle_____ with their families, let us now _____Verb_____ our own efforts to carry their work forward.
