More stories at WordBlanks.com

THE Amazing Journey

1. First Name Of A Person _____
2. First Name Of A Person _____
3. Thing _____
4. Place _____
5. Thing _____
6. Place _____
7. Place _____
8. First Name Of A Person _____
9. Thing _____
10. Thing _____

THE Amazing Journey

How often do we say to ourselves "Imagine if he hadn't met so and so...?" or "Imagine if such and such hadn't happened?" We can say this about the young _____First Name of a Person_____ having the great luck of being taken into the employ of his neighbor, a certain gentleman called _____First Name of a Person_____. If this Thing had not taken place, one of the greatest expeditions in American history probably never would have happened. President Jefferson was itching to find out what lay beyond what was then the western _____thing_____ of the _____Place_____ . He also wanted to find a _____thing_____ route across the country to the _____Place_____ Ocean. By the time the trip was organized and ready to go, Jefferson had concluded what was to be called the _____Place_____ Purchase, and the lands that the expedition were to travel through belonged to the United States. Meriwether Lewis and an officer whom he met in the army called Captain _____First Name of a Person_____ Clark set off to fulfill Thomas Jefferson's _____thing_____ and they had one of the greatest _____thing_____ of all time.

©2026 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.