CAMP APPLEWOOD

Today at Camp Applewood _____teacher_____ showed up with _____colour_____ hair. The principal of the school, _____female staff_____, was shocked to see this. Having become the new principal she was not very happy with this teacher showing up looking like this. She sent the teacher home and called her mother to tell her how upset she was.

While she was on the phone _____male staff_____ came in and starting setting up a tent. What are you doing the principal said? Going camping was the reply. Not in my office. This is a camp day for the students, not you! Go to the office! WAIT! You are in the office. Get out of my office!

The principal needed some air, so she went to the _____place in the school_____ and saw _____teacher_____ trying to build a fire with _____teacher_____. The principal said you can't do that. But what kind of camp is this if we don't have a fire they replied. Well, you can't! It's School property, no campfires are allowed.

The principal thought everyone had gone bonkers! She went inside to tell to Ms. Pattison and Ms. Fraccaro about the crazy events. Her jaw dropped to the floor when she saw them in the hallway trying to _____camp activity_____.

Suddenly, Pierce woke up and realized she was only dreaming. Thank Goodness!
