One day there was a           Noun           named           Proper Noun          . He was a VERY LARGE           Noun           .

          Pronoun           loves           Noun                     Noun           and to           Verb           and           Verb          . He has a bestfriend names Jasmine. Jasmine loves to run with           Noun           too. One morning           Noun           was Verb - Present Tense           and           Noun                     Verb - Past Tense           on him. Jasmine then showed him a

          Adjective           ,           Adjective           ,           Adjective           ,           Noun           . kit was they were very Adjective           of finding it in their room .           Proper Noun           was very           Verb - Past Participle           after awhile and then something           Adjective           happened ! The           Noun           came to lfe! his name is matty . matty started           Verb - Present Tense           the blues all of a sudden
