Reading is So Delicious

One day Adjective Verb - Present ends in ING hood Verb - Base Form through the forest on her way to the library.

She was stopped by a Adjective wolf, who wanted something to eat. She did not have anything that would be good for a hungry wolf, so she invited him to come along with her to the Noun.

When they Verb - Base Form at the public library, they discovered the summer reading program was just beginning. Noun and the wolf Verb - Past Tense and discovered that just by Verb - Present ends in ING books they would get tasty treats.

Oh how excited they both were to get to spend the summer reading books and enjoying Adjective treats!
