My Birthright Israel Trip

I recently returned from my amazing Birthright Israel trip with _____Birthright Trip Provider_____. I flew in on _____Airline_____ , landed in _____Famous Israeli_____ Gurion Airport in Tel Aviv. Our group met our Israeli's at the airport and we started our jouney on the bus.

We headed North and checked into our kibbutz. We had our first meal, a huge buffet of _____silly food_____ and _____silly food_____, and _____silly food_____ for dessert. The rooms at the kibbutz were _____Adjective_____ and my roomates were _____Adjective_____. That night, we stayed up until _____Time of Day_____ _____Verb - Present ends in ING_____ and telling _____Verb - Present ends in ING_____.

The next day we went to the mystical city of _____City_____, where we learned about _____Adjective_____ rabbis and Kabbalah. We had time for shopping and many people purchased _____Noun - Plural_____, _____Noun - Plural_____, and art.

Day three we floated down the _____River_____ in rafts. _____Tour Guide Name_____ fell in. Later that day, we went to a viewpoint where we could see the country of _____Random Country_____. It was interesting to learn the history and relationships between _____Same Random Country_____ and Israel.

Our next stop was Jerusalem, where we visited the Old City and Jewish Quarter, Ben Yehuda street, and _____Verb - Past Tense_____ at the Western Wall. Most people put a note in the wall wishing for a _____What you Wish for_____.

We had the opportunity to celebrate Shabbat during our trip, and I was able to lead the blessing over the _____Noun - Plural_____. We also said the _____prayer_____ and _____prayer_____, and learned about the Parsha of the week, which is the torah portion. We ended Shabbat with Havdalah where our tour guide played _____instrument_____ while we sang.

The day we _____Verb - Past Tense_____ Masada was the most memorable for me. The _____same verb past tense_____ was difficult, but we made it to the top in time to see the _____Noun_____. We learned about the battles that took place at the historic site, and after _____same verb past tense_____ back down, arrived at the _____Adjective_____ sea! We covered our _____Part of Body_____ in _____liquid or gel_____ and floated for what seemed like hours. That night we slept at a Bedouin _____type of dwelling_____, and enjoyed a bonfire.

We spent some time in the Negev, which is the southern desert part of Israel. We visited where Ben Gurion, the first prime minister of Israel is buried. We then were able to volunteer in Chicago's Partnership Region of Kiryat Gat Lachish Shafir. We played with Ethiopian children, had a _____Noun_____ party, did some _____Noun_____ and _____Noun_____, and laughed a lot. They were so cute!

Our last day we stopped in Tel Aviv and visited Rabin Square and Independence Hall, and even spent some time at the beach, _____Verb - Present ends in ING_____. We were all really _____feeling_____ to leave the group, to leave Israel , and especially would miss our Israelis.

I know that Israel will always been a huge part of my life going forward, and I can't wait to go back. For now, I'm looking forward to meeting more great Jews and giving back in Chicago. Shalom for now!
