Melissa and Brian's Engagement

I was _____ Verb - Present ends in ING a dinner for school when my friends called to have me come pick them up at a local restaurant. I headed across the river to Cypress Inn to pick them up.

Once I arrived I was led to the river to meet the other girl I was picking up. Instead of my friends I found Brian alone on the dock. The dock was lit with _____ Adjective lights and the sun was starting to go down. It was a Tuesday so I was confused why Brian was in Tuscaloosa, but I ran down to see him. I was so excited that I asked "what are you doing here?" Brian laughed as he got down on one knee and asked me to marry him!

Of course I said yes! He then _____ Verb - Past Tense for our friends _____ Full Name of a Person _____ Full Name of a Person and Mary Katherine _____ Full Name of a Person to come out of the _____ Noun where they had been _____ Verb - Present ends in ING. Brian and I enjoyed _____ food and _____ drink on the porch of Cypress Inn as we watched the remainder of the sunset and talked about our future as husband and wife!
