Hide- a horror made to humour

my car parked over at the side of made up word road, the car was all out of a liquid and there was none left in the back, i had been Verb - Present ends in ING for number hours and there was no sight of a town nearby, I didn't even know where I was Verb - Present ends in ING myself anymore, I Verb - Past Tense the door and a Adjective smell of Adjective animal waffed into my body part, I got Verb - Past Tense towards the smell and Verb - Past Tense a type of house, as I weaved myself through the trees with the Noun - Plural Verb - Present ends in ING under my body part I finally got to the front Noun, I Verb - Past Tense to let them know I was there, and a Adjective woman's Verb - Base Form called out to me, she Adverb Verb - Past Tense the door and greeted me by saying a greeting and that her name was a name, she was wearing a a colour type of fabric an animal suit with a colour fur around the edges, she Verb - Past Tense me inside for some Adjective a liquid and a treat.

She asked me what the a food I was doing out this late in the first place, I told her that I had no

Noun - Plural left in my car and that I was meant to be Verb - Past Tense my Noun for Christmas and that the was no way that i'd be Verb - Present ends in ING there any time soon.

I Verb - Past Tense a Noun of a liquid in the corner, and I asked if she had any I could Verb - Base Form.

She said she didn't have any, which was really Adjective. So she Verb - Past Tense me to stay in the Adjective bedroom she had, the room was Adjective, it had a Noun bed with a colour velvet sheets, a colour Noun - Plural and even a pool table, wow! I Verb - Past Tense her for her kindness and she left the room for me to Verb - Base Form. when I Verb - Past Tense that there were no windows in the room, I called out her name but she didn't answer, I Verb - Past Tense to open the door, Verb - Present ends in ING as Adjective as I could but it wouldn't Verb - Base Form, what was going on? she left a note on my bed, it was in a a colour envelope with a a colour seal, I read the letter and it said 'hide' and suddenly I saw a Adjective Noun Verb - Present ends in ING around the corner, it wasn't Noun ...
