I'm missing my animal today my made up animal name Verb - Past Tense off after a piece of food, his or her name is name and he or she is number years old, if you have seen it please return it. it is really Adjective and Verb - Present ends in S anything in sight but it specifically likes Noun

, it likes to Verb - Base Form after Adjective Noun - Plural. I always told it to stop Verb - Present ends in ING them but I don't think he understands language, it is the Adjective animal ever. one time, I asked it if it knew how to go to the Noun and it just said noise it makes I mean, how Adjective is that? he has colour fur and its ears are the same shape as Noun - Plural, and they stick up whenever anyone yells Noun! I always thought he was a Adjective made up animal name, but others don't think so because nobody else has one. they all think I'm Adjective because these are the Adjective - Ends in EST animals alive. this animal is Adjective and can't Verb - Base Form on its own, so please return it to my Noun immediately by Friday, thanks Proper Noun - Plural!
