Misogynistic Rant

While men and women have immense common interests - their shared interests as human beings - their interests often divide because of the differing obligations that their shared human concerns require of each.

Sometimes either the man or the woman simply _____Verb - Present ends in S_____ at these _____Adverb_____ based _____Noun - Plural_____.

Whether it be _____Verb - Present ends in ING_____ and child _____Verb - Present ends in ING_____ itself that falls on women, or the various aspects of _____Verb - Present ends in ING_____ and _____Verb - Base Form_____ that fall on men.

Men, particularly, have the option - _____Adjective_____ though it may be - to flee their _____Noun - Plural_____.

Add to that, men and women are wired differently through the process of _____Noun_____, as each gender adapted to their different _____Noun - Plural_____. A "parallax views" difference.

As much recent research reveals, men and women approach and solve problems differently.

They

apply a somewhat different mode of _____Noun_____, again that has _____Verb - Past Tense_____ over the eons because of their differing _____Noun - Plural_____ in _____Noun_____.

Essentially, men tend to be more _____Adverb_____ _____Adjective_____ with their fellows.

Women tend to employ a _____Adjective_____ _____Noun_____ with other women. Albeit, there are pecking orders among women, of course. There are certainly Type A women - women who dominate others - women and men.

Bottom line, "Why can't a _____Noun_____ be more like a _____Noun_____?"

Well, she's never going to be. And vice versa. For good reasons.

There will always be _____Adjective_____ _____Noun_____ and _____Noun_____ as a result.

What used to be called, "The _____Noun_____ of the _____Noun - Plural_____."

Instead of _____Adverb_____ _____Verb - Present ends in ING_____ and _____Verb - Present ends in ING_____ about something that has always been,

why

don't we _____Adverb_____ _____Verb - Base Form_____ _____Noun - Plural_____ for _____Verb - Present ends in ING_____ with each other - _____Noun - Plural_____ and _____Noun - Plural_____ - understanding there will be differences always.

And in the largest sense, agreeing to disagree, while doing what's necessary to make it work.
