A Hero's Tale

Once upon a time, in the village of _____, there lived a small _____. This _____ wanted more than anything to be a hero, but nothing much ever happened in the village of _____. Then one day, a mysterious _____ came the land. This _____ was very strange and spoke of faraway lands, including the Misty Mountain. In this mountain, there lived a _____ who guarded a _____. It was said that whoever could defeat the _____ and free the _____ would be a true hero.

So, the _____ set out on a long and dangerous journey. He first had to pass through the Candy Forest, where he battled the _____ army. Then he had to cross the Raging River, which was filled with _____. Finally, he reached the Misty Mountain. When he got there, he suddenly felt very frightened. He walked up to the entrance, and there was the _____! The _____ was sleeping, so the _____ had to be very careful. He tiptoed very quietly passed the _____, and almost made it- until he tripped on a tail! The _____ saw the _____, and was very upset. The _____ charged at the _____, so he pulled out his _____, and they fought a great battle. The _____ defeated the _____ and won the _____, which he brought back to the village of _____, where the villagers gave him a _____ as thanks for being a true hero.
