Real Cranberry Juice

Once upon a time, in a Noun far far away, there lived a Adjective bartender.

Ok, full disclosure- she wasn't at all Repeat Last Adjective but she was definitely less than happy.

Anyway, one day a Adjective Mexican came in for a quick Noun with her very good Noun. The bartender didn't have what the Mexican wanted and felt Adjective about it. But the bartender was not going to let her new Mexican friend down... and she came up with a Adjective and healthy alternative.

That's all that the bartender remembers, because she was so Emotion, and before she knew it- the Mexican and her friend had Verb - Past Tense.

But the story isn't over.

6 months later, they totally banged.

The end.
