

The Pearl - by John Steinbeck

1. Noun
2. Verb - Past Tense
3. Noun
4. Adjective
5. Verb - Base Form
6. Noun
7. Same Noun
8. Same Noun
9. Same Noun
10. Adverb
11. Verb - Past Tense
12. Same Noun
13. Verb - Past Tense
14. First Name Of A Person
15. Same Noun
16. Business
17. Verb - Base Form
18. Adjective
19. Adjective
20. Same Noun
21. Same Noun
22. Adjective
23. Same Noun

24. Adjective
25. Noun - Plural
26. Same Noun
27. Same Noun
28. Verb - Base Form
29. Same Noun
30. Same Noun
31. Noun
32. Verb - Past Tense
33. Noun
34. Verb - Past Tense
35. Emotion
36. People
37. Animal
38. Verb - Past Tense
39. Noun
40. Verb - Past Tense
41. Adjective
42. Same Noun

The Pearl - by John Steinbeck

There once was a Noun named Kino who had a wife named Juana. Their baby, Coyotito, got Verb - Past Tense by a Noun. They were Adjective, so they couldn't Verb - Base Form for the cure. Kino was a Noun fisherman, so they decided to search for a Same Noun that could pay off their debt. They got lucky, and found a magnificently big Same Noun. They felt that the Same Noun was magic, and news spread to the town Adverb. Kino and Juana Verb - Past Tense of all that they could do with the money from the Same Noun. Soon the Priest Verb - Past Tense, and reminded them to give thanks to First Name of a Person by sharing the Same Noun with the Business. Then the doctor, who wouldn't even give them the time of day before, was eager to Verb - Base Form their baby. Kino was Adjective of the doctor, but knew he had to trust him, because the doctor was Adjective and Kino was not.

The next day, Kino went downtown to sell his Same Noun. The Same Noun buyers already knew about Adjective Same Noun, and decided ahead of time to try to convince him it was Adjective. Kino felt insulted by their Noun - Plural, and refused to sell. He knew he would have to go to the capitol to get the money he deserved. Although she knew the Same Noun would do a lot for the family, Juana had doubts, and knew the Same Noun could Verb - Base Form the family apart. She told Kino to throw the Same Noun back into the sea, but Kino stubbornly refused. That night, Juana took the Same Noun and tried to throw it back into the Noun, but Kino caught her and Verb - Past Tense her. Moments later, a Noun attacked Kino, and Kino Verb - Past Tense him in self defense. Also, someone burned down their house and sabotaged their canoe. Kino and Juana now were filled with _____, and knew they had to leave town.

They ran through the night, and came across _____ who were following them. Kino and Juana hid in a _____ cave, and waited for the _____. That night, the _____ rested by a spring, and Kino snuck up to kill them in order to protect his family. Right before Kino attacked, the _____ thought they heard a " _____ " cry, but it was actually Coyotito. The _____ shot towards the sound, and Kino attacked. He _____ one to death, stole his _____, and then killed the other two with that _____. Kino had a bad feeling about the _____ shot, and his bad feeling was right: Coyotito had been murdered.

Juana and Kino _____ to their town with their son's corpse in Juana's shawl. With all their hopes and dreams lost, they stood on the shore and hurled their _____ back into the sea.