SUMMERTIME at LARAWAY

It's finally summertime in Vermont and there's so much going on here at Laraway! This summer we have 5 teams: the Adjective Noun - Plural, the Adjective Noun - Plural, the Adjective Noun - Plural, the Noun - Plural, and the Noun - Plural. We're all located in the same container.

It's awesome, because they just got finished building the new game court, and now we can go out and get up a Adjective game of game above when we need a break. The court is Adjective and it's really easy to score a lot of points especially if name of person, name of person, and name of person are on your team.

There's always Adjective stuff to do off-campus too. Sometimes we Verb - Base Form Noun - Plural or Verb - Base Form at the previous verb park. Often we go Verb - Present ends in ING on a Adjective path in the woods looking for Adjective Noun - Plural for period of time plural on end. Once we found a whole container of Noun - Plural. We collected them and tried to make Noun - Plural out of them. Our first attempt failed because they looked more like Adjective Noun - Plural than Noun - Plural. But then we modified the Noun - Plural and used some Noun that name of person in room had in his/her pocket, and the result was altogether Adjective. Who would have thought that making noun plural on line six this parag could be so much fun!

Another thing we like to do is go Verb - Present ends in ING. Every day after world language class, we put our Noun - Plural away, gather our Noun - Plural and Noun - Plural, fill out an off-site form and GO! We have to take a school sports car, because it's about number miles away, which usually takes us about number period of time plural. Most of us have to bring our Noun - Plural, but name of person in room is so good at Verb - Present ends in ING that he/she doesn't need one. We always bring along a few spares just in case though.

A lot of times our sports car above is so full that we load up the sports car above with Noun - Plural and Noun - Plural, then a few of us like name of person in room, name of person in room, and name of person in room ride behind on our any vehicle plural not motorized. That's when our Adjective liquid bottles really come in handy! We take turns riding, so that we're not too tired to Verb - Base Form when we get to place.

Unfortunately, when it weather condition plural too much, we can't go and we have to adopt our weather condition above ending in y day plan. This usually includes Verb - Present ends in ING some Noun - Plural and sometimes even Verb - Present ends in ING a little Noun, but like I say, that's not too often, only when it weather condition above plural.

So much for Summer Fun at Laraway.....Stay tuned for more
