I didn't know my _____ Noun before I was 1 and a half, when the _____ Proper Noun light swapped me with my _____ Adjective parents' real baby. I first realized I was a _____ Job when I was 3, when me and my old friend, _____ First Name of a Person, played dress-up in daycare. The last time i saw her before she moved to Chicago, was my 5th birthday party, but months passed since I've seen her. in When i just turned 8, we moved from Portland, Oregon to to a little city in _____ Location, and I saw two _____ Noun - Plural saying i used to live in Boregon, but one of those boys, _____ First Name of a Person Black, was my 8th grade crush. When I entered 3rd grade, I got a letter from someone very special to me. I read the sender's name, and I had _____ Animal (plural), and wanted to go crazy. "
