The Story of Erick & Lindsey

Once upon a time, there was a boy named Erick and a girl named Lindsey. Erick was a Occupation, and Lindsey was a Occupation. Erick met Lindsey when he was Verb - Present ends in ING around the Place. The first thing he thought when he saw her was, "She is so Adjective. I have to get to know her." She thought he was pretty Adjective, too. Erick asked Lindsey to Verb - Base Form with him. They had so much fun together. After that, they went to the Place and spent the rest of the day Verb - Present ends in ING. They ate lots of Adjective Food. They even found a Noun and took pictures with it! Lindsey especially liked when Erick Verb - Past Tense. She had never met anyone like him.

That night, Erick Adverb took Lindsey to Place in his Adjective Brand of Car. They were Verb - Present ends in ING so fast. They sat together on the Noun and looked up at the stars. It was Weather, probably Number degrees outside, but they didn't care. Song Title was playing in the background, and Erick started to feel Adjective. He thought she looked more Adjective than ever. He never wanted the night to end. Finally he said, "Lindsey, please Verb - Base Form me. I will treat you like Disney Princess. We can Verb - Base Form into the sunset on my Adjective Animal." Then he Verb - Past Tense her. Lindsey smiled and thought Erick was so Adjective, so she decided to say yes. And they lived happily ever after.
