My Birthday

I opened my _____Part of Body_____, finding myself in my own _____Noun_____. The curtains were already open and a bright light shone in. I looked at my _____Noun_____ next to my bed. I smelled bacon. Eggs. _____Noun_____ with my favorite strawberry jam. I saw a plate, steaming _____Adjective_____ with fresh cooked breakfast. An ice cold glass of _____food_____ juice sat next to it as well. I smiled and quickly sat up in impatience. I couldn't wait to dig into this delicious meal. But where was my family?

I shrugged, and picked up the _____Noun_____ next to the plate and dug out a huge scoop of _____Adjective_____ eggs. Suddenly I heard a loud "Happy Birthday!" My family stood in the doorway. My mom held _____Number_____ balloons which all said in big words: Happy Birthday Bethany!, my sister held 3 wrapped _____Noun - Plural_____, and my little brother held a container of _____Noun - Plural_____. My father looked at me _____Adverb_____, as if he couldn't believe I was already _____Number_____. He held -- well, it looked like something wrapped in tin foil, but I couldn't tell what.

I stared at them for a few moments, then I smiled and said an _____Adjective_____, "Hi!" They all pushed into my room and sat on my _____Noun_____ or chairs.

"Good morning, _____silly word_____!" My mom said. She tied all 5 balloons to my bedpost and my sister handed me my _____Noun - Plural_____. Then my little brother shot the container of confetti upward and thousands of _____Adjective_____ paper flew into the air. After I finished _____Verb - Present ends in ING_____, I opened my presents. My sister got me a neon pink _____Noun_____ that said my name on it, my brother gave me a handmade birthday _____Noun_____, and my parents both bought me an _____Noun_____! This was the best birthday in a long time!
