More stories at WordBlanks.com

DragonCraft

1. Location _____
2. Same Animal _____
3. Adjective _____
4. Adjective _____
5. Adjective _____
6. Adjective _____
7. A Parent Or Guardian _____
8. Same Animal _____
9. Creature _____
10. Noun _____
11. Noun - Plural _____
12. Event _____

DragonCraft

Once upon a time in the far off land of _____Location_____ there lived a happy flying _____Same Animal_____ who loved adventure. She loved flying through the worlds of beautiful blocks looking at others amazing creations. _____Adjective_____ castles, _____Adjective_____ sailing vessels and mass tracts of farming land were just some of the worlds she spent her time exploring. One day, she decided to play the game for survival and go on a _____Adjective_____ adventure!

Indeed, she had done so much sightseeing that she was good at navigations; but, she seriously lacked other necessary survival skills. After a few attempts at the game, she failed miserably and got really discouraged. Her friend, the minion, challenged her to attend a survival training camp. She _____Adjective_____ accepted her friends challenge and enlisted the help of her _____a parent or guardian_____ to help with her daily practice.

The happy flying _____Same Animal_____ attended training sessions on everything from fire breathing to strategic maneuvering. She met a super helpful training guard who protected the knowledge and guided her to the right training sessions.

Wow did her time at survival training camp pay off. In no time at all, she was slaying _____Creature_____, growing her own _____Noun_____ and even conquering the famed _____Noun - Plural_____.

Moral

to the story: When you get start playing the game of English B, come to Training Camp (Class Connects, Composition Conferences and Study _____Event_____) where you can attend skill building sessions that will help you master the game of English B!

©2026 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.