

A English B Fable

1. Location
2. Animal
3. Verb - Present Ends In Ing
4. Same Animal As Before
5. Verb - Present Ends In Ing
6. Adjective
7. Adjective
8. Adjective
9. A Parent Or Guardian
10. Same Animal As Before
11. Noun - Plural
12. Noun - Plural
13. Event

A English B Fable

Once upon a time in the far off land of my _____ Location was the game of _____ Animal Craft there lived a happy _____ Verb - Present ends in ING _____ same animal as before who loved adventure. She loved _____ Verb - Present ends in ING through the worlds of beautiful blocks looking at others amazing creations. _____ Adjective castles, _____ Adjective sailing vessels and mass tracts of farming land were just some of the worlds she spent her time exploring. One day, she decided to play the game for survival and go on a real adventure!

Indeed, she had done so much sightseeing that she was good at navigations; but, she seriously lacked other necessary survival skills. After a few attempts at the game, she failed miserably and got really discouraged. Her friend, the minion, challenged her to attend a survival training camp. She _____ Adjective accepted her friends challenge and enlisted the help of her _____ a parent or guardian to help with her daily practice.

The happy flying _____ same animal as before attended training sessions on everything from fire breathing to strategic maneuvering. She met a super helpful training guard who protected the knowledge and guided her to the right training sessions.

Wow did her time at survival training camp pay off. In no time at all, she was slaying creatures, growing her own _____ Noun - Plural and even conquering the famed _____ Noun - Plural.

Moral

to the story: When you get start playing the game of English B, come to Training Camp (Class Connects, Composition Conferences and Study _____ Event) where you can attend skill building sessions and meet your training guard (teacher) who will help you master the game of English B!

©2026 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.