A Day at Blacktop

It was another Wednesday morning. Adjective Adjective into the parking lot, filled with Plural Some people make Noun - Plural ones, some people made long ones, but the best were the Adjective ones. After bracelet making, it was time for a game of basketball. The people who didn't want to Verb - Base Form sat on the sidelines and Verb - Base Form . Everyone's favorite moment was when Proper Noun dunked the basketball over Proper Noun. He did it so Adverb and Adverb he looked like a Adjective basketball player. Soon it was lunch time, and the ladies from Proper Noun Public Schools dropped off the Noun - Plural. For lunch the Blacktop kids had Noun - Plural , Noun - Plural , Noun , and Noun . The Noun was especially good today because it was very Adjective . After lunch, it was time for a field trip. Today everyone went to the Proper Noun Market and bought Adjective apples and Adjective peppers. When they got back from the Farmer's Market, it was time to go home stood up and yelled, " interjection ! It's time to get on the bus everyone!" And all the kids got on the bus and went home.
