

The Proposal, Part I

1. Noun
2. Proper Noun - Plural

The Proposal, Part I

Colin had taken Megan to look at rings, kind of out of the blue one night after FHE. The store was almost closed and they didn't get to look much, which was fine, because Megan was sort of speechless. Colin didn't talk a lot about it beforehand. The next time they went, Megan was a little more prepared, and she showed Colin what she liked, they may have gone two more times, but I think that was it. Colin called Kathleen, asked what she thought, and Colin took Kathleen to show her some rings, and with Kathleen's advice decided on one. He ordered it; it was going to take about a week and a half. After that, Colin just stopped talking about rings, _____ Noun _____, everything. He wanted the proposal to be a _____

Oops - we had an issue loading this page. Word Blanks support has been notified of the problem.

---

Please feel free to contact us for additional information. You can use the "Give Feedback" link in the upper-right corner of the site.

---

Return to Home Page

---

_____, but I think Megan was thinking "what the heck is going on, he takes me looking for _____ Proper Noun - _____

Plural _____ and just stops everything after that?" But, unknown to Megan, Colin was being a busy guy. He had to talk to Tom and Kathleen, decide when and where to propose. He finally decided on the Saturday after the ring came in.