The day I almost lost my mind

As I was driving to _____ Noun one day, a panic settled throughout my _____ Noun. "Wow! I haven't registered for ACEP13!" Worse yet, I thought I had already missed the early-bird deadline to save $100. My _____ Noun would wring my _____ Noun if _____ Pronoun knew that I missed out on saving the organization $100! _____ Pronoun would say "Think of what the group could have done with $100! We could have bought _____ Noun - Plural, _____ Noun - Plural, _____ Noun - Plural machines..."

I felt the _____ Noun in my _____ Noun _____ Verb - Base Form larger and larger. I need to find a _____ Noun ASAP and register for ACEP13 today! I _____ Verb - Base Form inside, sat down at my _____ Noun and began the registration process - easy as punch, by the way! I asked myself "Self, why did you wait so long to register for the best education in emergency medicine? You would have missed out on great education, an out-of-this-world opening and closing party, networking events galore, and my friend Garfield from medical school!"

Then I realized, Early-Bird ends September 13. I was ok and lost my mind for absolutely no reason. But think how many people aren't as fortunate as I am! I'm here to tell you now, register for ACEP13 and save $100 before you lose your mind.
