My Wedding Day!

It started off when my nickname like sweetie - honey - baby etc -to-be got down on Number plural body part and asked me to verb him while holding up the most Adjective - Ends in EST

Noun I'd ever seen. I said yes or no. On a Adjective month part of day - day night afternoon etc I married a Adjective man named any last name who I just call " name for a pet " for short. I had Number bridesmaids and he had Number groomsmen. All of my bridesmaids wore long or short color plural clothing with matching plural clothing, white plural clothing and dark color plural clothing while I sported a single body part -less Adjective color single clothing item with red plural shape - triangles etc, a bow just below my single body part and color heels. All of his groomsmen wore color suits. My maid of honor was my family member - sister uncle grandpa. We had a

Adjective wedding cake that was food on the outside and food on the inside with flavor - bacon vanilla fish etc, it was actually a color velvet cake in the shape of a Noun because we both have a thing for them. The music was Adjective and we verb plus ED practically all night! The food was Adjective too! Our occupation took pictures of us in various places, one by the Noun where he sat on a Noun and I sat on his single body part as we verb plus ED. Another was him giving me a Animal -back ride through the plural outside object - trees mountains etc with our plural clothing left behind. How Adjective! At the end of it all, we got a transportation ride to any place to finish off the night Noun gazing, verb

plus ING and verb plus ING. This day I will always or never treasure forever in my organ of body - lung kidney spleen etc!
