Grammar Mad Libs -

On Wednesday, I asked my _____ homework, my teacher assigned a _____ with loads of _____. It asked, "What is a noun?"
Listening to my _____, I wrote _____. When I turned it in, my teacher said, "A noun is not a _____! A noun is a person, place, or thing." I was so shocked I _____! "A noun is not a _____," I said to my _____. "It's a _____, _____, or _____." My cow said, "Huh?" Pointing to a _____, she said, "Is that a _____?" I couldn't believe I had even talked to this _____, much less even listened to it. "Um, yes!" I lied, and I learned never to listen to my _____ again.
