More stories at WordBlanks.com

The Championship Game

1. Verb - Past Tense _____
2. Noun _____
3. Verb - Present Ends In Ing _____
4. Adjective _____
5. Verb - Past Tense _____
6. Number _____
7. Verb - Past Tense _____
8. Noun _____
9. Noun _____

The Championship Game

It is the championship game. Emmaus was taking on their biggest rivals, the Parkland Trojans. The team _____Verb - Past Tense_____ their _____Noun_____ and ran down to the field. After warming up, the pressure was on. The whistle blew and they took off down the field _____Verb - Present ends in ING_____ the hockey ball around the defenders. Parkland was not unprepared they _____Adjective_____ intercepted the passing. They maneuvered the ball around our defense and with a crack of the stick the ball was in the back of the goal. Parkland _____Verb - Past Tense_____ with excitement. The whistle blew, once again, and as the trojans were still celebrating their achievement Emmaus carried it down the field and scored in the last _____Number_____ seconds of the half. Halftime was over and both teams were ready to play. The Hornets and the Trojans were head to head and the score stayed at one to one. In the final minute of the game, Emmaus took the ball into the circle and _____Verb - Past Tense_____ the ball. A defenders foot stopped the ball just before going into the goal. The ref called for a stroke. Coach sent a _____Noun_____ up to the mark. Goalie ready, Stroker ready, TWEET. The ball went into the top right corner of the _____Noun_____ and it was a goal. Emmaus has won and the crowd went wild!

©2026 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.