I knew I shouldn't have gone with my Proper Noun and Proper Noun to the Proper Noun Proper Noun. They always end up making a huge scene. Or somehow find a way to Verb - Base Form me. But this time I have to say it was definatley my Proper Noun fault. All Proper Noun wanted was a Noun. So thats what I took her to get. Little did I know this move whould make my Proper Noun Adjective. She thought someone took us and started Verb - Present ends in ING our names. We came right back and I thought it was no big deal...until my Proper Noun Verb - Past Tense by staring at me getting Verb - Past Tense at by my mom. It was offically the Adjective day of my life.
