New York City

One day a few _____Noun - Plural_____ ago, my parents decided that I could finally visit New York City all by myself, but of course I would be staying at a _____Noun - Plural_____ house while there. I was so excited to see my cousins but even more anxious to see the Big Apple! My _____Noun - Plural_____ dropped me off at their _____Noun_____ and there, my _____Noun_____ began. It was impossible to choose what to do first but we decided on a shopping spree at the mall which was amazing because there were never such big _____Noun - Plural_____ where I lived in _____Proper Noun_____. Then, we took a nice stroll through Central Park and visited the Art Museum on our way. There were a _____Number_____ other things I wanted to do but there's just so much that you can do in a day. By the end of the day, I had seen so many _____Adjective_____ things and, I couldn't wait for the next day to come.
