Police Report #28

Class: Missing Person

Victim: Smith, Robert M.

Report:

Robert was _____ Verb - Past Tense through Antrom Forest at approximately 7:36 PM as of September 17th. As he was _____ Verb - Past Tense _____ Preposition the path leading north he strayed off the path. In a book where he logs his hikes through the forest, he writes that "I see an _____ Adjective set of tracks leading off of the path that i do not recognize." He continues to say how he is continuing off of the path investigating the _____ Adjective tracks. He continues to write that he feels a _____ Adjective feeling of uneasiness as he continues off the path. Judging by his tracks, Robert soon starts to break into a run. His tracks lead on for a couple of meters before they completely disappear. It is now December and we have had other disappearances in a similar fashion. No victims have turned up yet and we presume that most of _____ Pronoun are dead.
