Bethelihem's Autobiography

I was born in Proper Noun . I have one brother who's Adjective than me, which makes the Adjective child. My mom was my role model when i was a kid so i wanted to do everything she does.

My mom was a Adjective back then so Noun became a Adjective when I was 4 years old. I'm still kind of a Adjective . I went to an Adjective school from kindergarten until 3rd grade.

During 3rd grade I moved out of Eritrea. I first went to North Sudan. I went to an Adjective school there.

That country was really Adjective . After about a year of living there I went to South Sudan, because they had decided to be 2 Adjective countries and it turned out my mom's headquarter was in South Sudan. We lived there for about 6 weeks I couldn't stand it because there were a a lot of mosquitoes. After that I went to Uganda. My mom was still working in South Sudan. So I had to live with a nanny for 2 years. Uganda is a very Adjective country. There area lot of trees and animals. And so, I came to America about 3-4 months ago.
