Cosmicomics: The Spiral

1.	Name - Masculine
2.	Verb - Present Third Person Singular
3.	Verb - Perfect Passive Participle
4.	Noun
5.	Adjective
6.	Adjective - Begins With Consonant
7.	Noun
8.	Adjective
9.	Verb - Bare Infinitive

Cosmicomics: The Spiral

For	NAME - masculine	bachelorho	od passes in the	e utmost simpli	city. He is fo	ormless thus u	ınbound	ed. His mollusk pe	erson ver	B - present third person	singular sen	sibles from the	water, the a	nalysis of wh	ich pres	ents the first evide	nce of other be	ings surroundi	ng. He is	VERB – perfect passive	e participle	then relieved
He infers a	a division betw	veen the sexes i	nto NOUN	and fema	le, and	ADJECTIVE	_ discrir	nination captivates	him in love. H	is jealousy gro	ws as he percei	ves the capaci	ties in his rel	ationship for	confusio	on and dissolution	n. So he decide	es to establish h	imself in a	ADJECTIVE - begi	ns with consonant	NOU	UN ,	which he makes out	of him as each	of the others i	make out of and	d around each o	of them.
This manu	facture is	ADJECTIVE	; it serves also	at once to	VERB - bare infi	nitive in f	form Hei	rodotus, Cleopatra,	train, beach, a	and future girl's	recognition of	his further self	f. His shell, (Qfwfq's, its vi	brancy g	gives vision to th	his world. Ima	ges are for hum	nans.

©2024 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.